

Mach Five Capital LLC Acquires Nem-Pak LLC

For Immediate Release

Mach Five Capital LLC is pleased to announce the acquisition of Nem-Pak LLC. While the ownership has changed, this transaction should be transparent to Nem-Pak's valued customers and suppliers. Nem-Pak will continue business as usual with NO CHANGE to the key functions of the business including:

- Management - The original founders of the company will continue in their prior roles until the new leadership team is fully trained and self-sufficient.
- Legal Entity - Nem-Pak LLC will remain as a stand-alone business within the Mach Five Capital portfolio
- Customer Purchase Orders - can still be issued to the same entity
- Supplier Invoices - can still be issued to the same entity
- Location - Nem-Pak LLC has recently signed a new long-term lease and will continue operations in the same facility at 1117 Cedar Ave Croydon, Pa.

The acquisition of Nem-Pak will further strengthen and diversify the Mach Five Capital portfolio, with plans to invest in and grow Nem-Pak. Mach Five's investment into Nem-Pak has already begun with the addition of world class talent to the Nem-Pak leadership team.

- James Pachucki has been appointed President of Nem-Pak, and is a tenured business professional with experience in multiple global industrial companies ranging from $70M to $14B. James earned an MBA in Corporate Finance from Temple University, a BS in Industrial Engineering from Lehigh University, Professional Management Professional certification from Villanova University, and is a Six Sigma Black Belt.
- Brandon Lee has been appointed Operations & Engineering Manager of Nem-Pak. Previously, Brandon worked at the Enrico Fermi Institute at the University of Chicago where he supported development of the Atlas detector for the CERN research facility in Geneva, Switzerland. He is an Ivy League graduate with a BS in Physics from Cornell University.

Nem-Pak will use the "Voice of the Customer" to determine the appropriate timing for the previous owners to begin their well-deserved retirement after tirelessly running the company for the past 39 years.

Congratulations and best wishes to Bob and Rita!
